It is great to be able to share this year's Class Assembly dates with you. We look forward to welcoming you back into school and provide the children with an opportunity to entertain their parents and carers as they summarise the learning from their termly themes. Class Assemblies will take place at 2:40pm in our School Hall.

Christmas Cards

The children's artwork for the PTA Christmas card fundraiser has been sent home today in their book bags. Should you wish to place an order, please follow the guidelines on the form and ensure the artwork is returned to school no later than Friday 15th October. A letter has been sent out with this week's Newsletter.

Bonfire and Firework Extravaganza

Poynton & District Round Table are now selling tickets for their annual bonfire and firework display that is being held at Poynton Park on Saturday 6th November. They are offering families at our school a 15% discount and will make a donation to our PTA after the event depending on the number of ticket sales using this code. Further details and instructions on how to book have been shared in a letter with this week's Newsletter.
